

1 Corinthians 4:1-2 (NKJV)

¹Let a man so consider us, as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. ²Moreover it is required in stewards that one be found faithful.

Introduction

In a world of wealth, celebration, fame, power, and status, God placed a far greater value on something many overlook – ministry.

- Ministry is not merely a profession, a title, a platform, or a position in the church.
- Ministry is a divine calling to represent Christ, to serve His people, to proclaim His truth, and to fulfill His plan and His purpose on Earth.
- Many calling are honorable, but ministry stands unique because it deals with eternal matters.
- Through ministry, souls are saved, believers are edified, truth is presented and preserved, and God's will and purpose are revealed.

2 Corinthians 5:18

Now all things are of God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation,

Defining the Seven (7) Aspects of God's Divine Calling

1. Ministry is a divine calling.

2. Ministry deals with eternal matters.
3. Ministry is about service not status.
4. Ministry required sacrifice.
5. Ministry is given to edify the church.
6. Ministry carries great responsibilities.
7. Ministry is Jesus Christ.

I. Ministry is a divine calling.

- Throughout the Scripture, God was the one who called, equipped, and sent His servants.
- Moses was called from a burning bush.
- Isaiah was called through a heavy vision.
- Jeremiah was called before birth.
- Paul was called by the Risen Christ.

Hebrews 5:4

And no man takes this honor to himself, but he who is called by God, just as Aaron was.

Note

Ministry begins with God's call, not human ambition.

II. Ministry deals with eternal matters.

- Doctors help to heal the body.
- Teachers educate the mind of pupils.
- Engineers build structures.
- But ministers help deal with souls destined for eternity.

Note

The ministry of the Gospel was sent to bring the people to eternity and believers to grow in Christ.

Mark 8:36

For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul?

The value of ministry is measured not merely by earthly result but heavenly.

III. Ministry is about service not status.

- The world's leaders seek to be served, but Christ taught His servants to serve.

Matthew 20:26

Yet it shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become great among you, let him be your servant.

UCA UNDERGOES INSET TRAINING

United Christian Academy (UCA) held its three-day In-Service Education and Training (INSET) for its teachers and staff from July 15 to 17 at the UCA Auditorium.

The training aimed to enhance and strengthen the teachers' instructional practices in line with the competencies of a 21st-century educator, covering topics from the school's current curriculum to the development of learning plans. The training sessions were facilitated by UCA teachers who previously completed their INSET at the Adamson University. They shared their knowledge and best practices in delivering quality education to learners. Everyone eagerly engaged in the sessions and demonstrated a willingness to adopt the enhanced teaching strategies and instructional materials. These learnings will help teachers improve classroom instruction and effectively assess students.

Praise God for continuously using UCA to bring quality education and as a gateway of evangelism to the lost souls.

The Lord continues to pour out His wisdom and strength upon the UCA teachers as they look forward to serving greater number of students in the coming years while continuing to be the salt and light to the community.

As the teachers dedicate their life in guiding and teaching the students holistically, they ensure that proper training is shared to everyone to align with students' learning needs.

Teachers who initially participated in the PEAC INSET served as the resource speakers, sharing the best practices they learned from the training workshop.

Certificates were awarded to the successful completers and speakers of the three-day training.

UCA PREPARES FOR A JOYFUL CELEBRATION

It has been a productive week for everyone who volunteered in the preparations for the upcoming 30th Founding Anniversary of United Christian Academy (UCA).

Colorful banderitas and tarpaulins were installed throughout the UCA campus, creating an atmosphere of fun and excitement for everyone. The UCA Family is looking forward in celebrating the Lord's faithfulness to the ministry He has sustained for the past 30 years. Each day, volunteers work together to create decorations, prepare designs, and accomplish various tasks in anticipation of the anniversary celebration.

Praise God for inspiring our brethren in making our anniversary memorable and fun!

The school halls are being decorated with colorful banners and designs, making everyone feel the festivity as the anniversary draws near. Several school facilities are also being prepared to hold in different contests and programs.

With Christ at the center, hearts are full as the UCF Family show support and love to the ministry of UCA.

The 30th Founding Anniversary is a special celebration as it emphasizes God's leading and faithfulness to the vision He has given.

Everyone are happy as they serve to please God, working together in harmony for the glory of God.

The Ministry,...

- Biblical ministry is not about tithes, prestige, or recognition. It is about serving God's people, teaching God's word, caring for souls, and building up the body of Christ.

- The greatest ministers are often the greatest servants.

IV. Ministry required sacrifice.

- Many people admire ministry from a distance but fail to see its cost.
- Paul experienced being Christ's servant. He endured imprisonments, persecutions, rejections, beatings, and hardships, yet he remained faithful to his calling.

Acts 20:24

But none of these things move me; nor do I count my life dear to myself, so that I may finish my race with joy, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God.

V. Ministry is given to edify the church.

- God gives ministers for believers to grow and to mature in the ministry.

Ephesians 4:12

for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ,

The ministry purpose is to:

- Equip the saints
- Teach Biblical truth
- Strengthen the believers
- Build the body of Christ

VI. Ministry carries great responsibilities.

- Those who minister God's word are accountable both to God and to man on how they handle it.

2 Timothy 2:15

Be diligent to present yourself approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

A minister must:

1. teach accurately,
2. live honorably,
3. guard sound doctrine, and
4. feed God's people faithfully and lovingly.

Ministry is a privilege as well as a responsibility.

VII. Ministry is Jesus Christ.

The greatest example of ministry is Jesus Christ. He is the perfect model of ministry.

- Jesus preached.
- Jesus taught.
- Jesus healed.
- Jesus served.
- Jesus sacrificed and fulfilled the Father's will completely.

Mark 10:45

For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many.

- It was Jesus' ministry that became the perfect pattern that every ministry should follow.

Challenge

Every ministry, big or small, should always follow the core principle of servanthood.

1 Corinthians 4:2

Moreover it is required in stewards that one be found faithful.

To be:

- Faithful
- Obedient
- Responsible
- Honorable at all times
